

Aagna

Look carefully at your inner self and ask yourself - who are you?

Introduction

- Questions to be answered
- Develop definition
- Create a vivid understanding
- Examples
- Discussion Points

Questions to be Answered

- What is Aagna?
 - Derive definition
- Who should it come from?
 - Establish list of priorities
 - Dharma sambandhi karya hoy te tatkaal karvu
 - (Shik)

Examples

- Muktanand Swami
- Dada Khachar
- Ukka Khachar

Discussion Points

- What are the characteristics of those who have true love for their God? (K11)
- There is one devotee who has devoted all his senses to the service of God. If the devotee is told by his God to keep away from him, what should he do? (K11)

Discussion Points (2)

- There is one devotee who observes Niyam to the nth degree but does not follow Aagna. While another devotee follows Maharaj's Aagna but does not conform to Niyam. Who is the more superior and why?

Discussion Points (3)

- It becomes difficult to observe Vartaman's strictly because of obstructions due to the surrounding environment. Discuss.

Homework

- Find an example of a prominent saint or devotee exhibiting the following of Aagna